AWARD

By order No. ID/FD/68-78/31180, dated 6th July, 1978, the Governor of Haryana, referred the following dispute between the management of M/s. Berrysons (India) Private Limited, 14th, Mathura Road, Faridabad and its workmen, to this Tribunal, for adjudication, in exercise of the powers, conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 :—

Whether the workmen whose names are shown in annexure "A" are absenting from duty or their services have been terminated by the management ? If the services of the workmen have been terminated by the management then to what relief are they entitled to ?

On receipt of the order of reference, notices were issued to the parties. The parties appeared. This dispute involves 78 workmen. The representative for the management stated that he can reinstate all these workmen provided they report for duty and do not claim back wages. The representative for the workmen agreed. On the next date of hearing the representative for the parties stated that the management had reinstated 56 workmen. The representative for the workmen stated that 5 or 6 workmen had to be reinstated in addition to the already reinstated workmen. On the next date fixed for hearing it was stated that the management had reinstated all the workmen except one Shri Hans Raj. The representative for the management agreed to reinstate Shri Hans Raj but he stated that he shall not reinstate any other workmen after that day and shall reinstate Shri Hans Raj Yadav. Both the parties agreed. I, therefore, give my award that all the workmen have been reinstated by the management without back wages and the workmen shall not claim back wages. Moreover, if any workman has remained un-reinstated by the management by 1st January, 1979, the management shall not reinstate him. The reinstated workmen shall not claim back wages.

AWARD

By order No. ID/FD/44-N-78/25887, dated 14th June, 1978, the Governor of Haryana referred the following dispute between the management of M/s Chopra Enterprises, Sector 27, Faridabad and its workman Shri Rampal Singh, to this Tribunal, for adjudication, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947:—

Whether the termination of services of Shri Rampal Singh was justified and in order? If not, to what relief is he entitled?

On receipt of the order of reference, notices were issued to the parties. The workman appeared through his representative, but the management did not appear and the management was ordered to be proceeded against ex parte. The case was fixed for ex parte evidence of the workman. The workman stated that he was working as a Supervisor, getting Rs 490 as wages. His work was satisfactory. He was victimised for trade union activities. He was laid off on 1st December, 1977. Lay off was lifted on 2nd December, 1977 and thereafter the management did not give him work. The management did not appear even in conciliation proceedings and he was unemployed. I believe in the ex parte statement of the workman. I give my award that the termination of services of the workman concerned Shri Rampal Singh was neither justified, nor in order. He is entitled to reinstatement with continuity of service and full back wages. I set aside the termination of his services.

Dimple Wears (P) Ltd., 15/7, Mathura Road, Faridabad and its workman Shri Ram Baran, to this Tribunal, for adjudication, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 :—

Whether the termination of services of Shri Ram Baran was justified and in order? If not, to what relief is he entitled?

On receipt of the order of reference, notices were issued to the parties. The parties appeared but the management did not appear on 6th November, 1978. Therefore, the management was proceeded against ex parte and the case was fixed for ex parte evidence of the workman. Thereafter the representative for the management appeared and moved an application for setting aside the ex parte proceedings which was fixed for filing reply by the workman. Even thereafter the management did not appear on three adjourned dates. The workman examined himself as his own witness. He stated that he was employed as a Chowkidar on wages Rs. 200 p. m. and the management terminated his services without any chargesheet or without any fault of his own on 24th July, 1976 and that the workman was unemployed since then.

I, believe in the ex parte statement of the workman. I give my award that the termination of services of the workman Shri Ram Baran, was neither justified nor in order. He is entitled to re-instatement with continuity of service and with full back wages.

AWARD

By order No. ID/GG/294-77/47711, dated 8th November, 1977 and No. ID/GG/292-77/49108, dated 22nd November, 1977, the Governor of Haryana, referred the following dispute between the management of M/s. Nibro Limited, to Delhi Road, Gurgaon and its workmen Shri Uma Shankar and Ashok Kumar, to this Tribunal, for adjudication, in exercise of powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 :—

Whether the termination of services of Sarvshri Uma Shankar and Ashok Kumar was justified and in order? If not, no what relief are they entitled?

On receipt of the order of references, notices were issued to the parties. The parties appeared and filed their pleadings. On the pleadings of the parties, the following issues were framed in both the references on 20th January, 1978 :—

1. Whether the workmen raised the demand with the management properly? If not, to what effect?
2. Whether the termination of the services of the workmen concerned was justified and in order? If not, to what relief are they entitled?

And the case was fixed for the evidence of the workmen. The workmen obtained several adjournment for adducing their evidence but adduced nill and on the last date of hearing neither the workmen appeared nor their representative. Thus the conduct of the workmen or their representative rendered the case liable to dismissal in default of non-appearance and non-prosecution.

In these circumstances, I think that the both of the workmen are not interested in pursuing their disputes. I, therefore give my award that the termination of services of Shri Uma Shankar in reference No. 201 of 1977 and termination of services of Shri Ashok Kumar in reference No. 209 of 1977 was justified and in order. They are not entitled to any relief.
